Palma-Sanft will review the document and notify Curriculum Services if any changes are needed.

III. OLD BUSINESS

A. English/Math Prerequisite Language

Discussion was tabled for next CIC meeting when VC Neault is in attendance.

IV. NEW BUSINESS

V. CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTIONAL CONCERNS AND ISSUES

Hess announced discussions are tabled until VC Bulger and the VIPs are in attendance.

VI. CIC SUBCOMMITTEE REPORTS

Hess will develop an issue tracker in order to inform of Subcommittee's recommendations.

Hess reported the following Committee progress:

A. District Articulation Council

No report

B. CurricUNET Steering Committee

• The committee discussed and prioritized critical CurricUNET issues and Distance Education: 1) adding, revising, and removing some contact types; 2) recommendations to modify course methods of instruction page to include three categories of distance education: fully online, partially online, and online with flexible in person meeting; 3) add a field for participants for each contact type including faculty and student/s and among students.

 The committee recommends to modify course methods of instruction page to include three categories of distance education including: fully online, partially online, and online with flexible in person meeting. The Committee will draft a proposal and bring it to CIC for review and recommendation.

C. Educational Review Committee

No report

D. CIC Catalog Subcommittee

- 1. Continued discussion 2020-2021 Catalog and plans to move toward an online interactive catalog in the future. Committee members strongly recommended we do it right once. They brainstormed a few ideas including develop a shared vision for an online catalog; thoroughly research needs of students, faculty (including counselors and department chairs), staff (including evaluators, admissions, student services, web developers and IT), and administrators. Consider DSPS and accessibility; budget; pathways, PeopleSoft, mobile friendly apps, open source options, document management support, pathways, etc.
- 2. DAC asked the catalog committee to consider removing the ADT list in the Academic Requirements Section because this information is repeated in the award chart. The committee agreed this information could be removed.
- DAC asked the Catalog Committee to consider removing UC information from the AP and IB charts because the information changes.
 The Catalog Committee recommended leaving this information in the catalogs because counselors use it on a daily basis.
- 4. The Committee discussed the need for catalog addenda/errata criteria and timeline.
- 5. The Subcommittee recommends the following: maintain status quo for the 2020-2021 catalogs (print and continue the current PDF format); develop training guides to use the current PDF format; develop a comprehensive three-year plan to move toward an online catalog that includes researching user needs (students, faculty, staff, and administrators), exploring vendor options; RFP process for selection, development, implementation, and planning; remove separate ADT List in the Academic Requirements Section from the college catalogs (Need CIC review and recommendation); keep the AP and IB charts in the college catalogs; request faculty, staff, administrator report from HR to help maintain these sections of the catalogs; and District Curriculum Services draft addenda/errata criteria and timeline to be reviewed at the next meeting.
