Our Fully Online Training Opportunities Include:

Canvas Training For On-Campus Faculty

A fully online, self-paced training course for on-campus instructors who want to use Canvas to supplement their face-to-face courses.

Online Faculty Training Certification Program

A fully online self-paced training course for faculty who teach online or are interested in teaching online. The course includes Distance Ed Guidelines, ACCJC/WASC requirements, retention strategies, copyright, accessibility, the tools and techniques for effective online teaching, and much more.

Both the courses have had overwhelmingly positive responses from their participants—a total of over 900 faculty members from across the SDCCD!
